ALMA

Our Lady of Guadalupe Mission. The Mission's Marian Year celebration was held on the feast of Christ the King. Participating were all the Catholic grammar school student bodies in the San Jose-Santa Clara area, Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, the Notre Dame High School Sodality, the Santa Clara University Color Guard and the University Sodality, the Knights of Columbus, and other civic and religious groups. Two blocks from the Church the Santa Clara Sodality men built a stage, which was decorated by Messrs. Olivier and Sacco (Ore.) Here after the procession from the church, prominent members of the parish crowned two statues, one of Christ the King and the other of Our Blessed Mother. Mr. Gallagher and the choir provided music at the stage and afterwards in church at the Solemn High Mass. Mr. Laubacher was at the organ. Fr. Stowe (Mo.) led the congregation in a living Rosary during which the little girls of the parish placed flowers at the feet of Our Lady's statue during each Hail Mary. Messrs. Keith and Dempsey took pictures of the ceremonies and Messrs. Becker and Nigro (Ore.) were ushers. At the Solemn Mass which closed the ceremonies, Fr. McDonnell was celebrant, Fr. Stowe, deacon; Fr. Murray (Ore.), subdeacon; and Mr. Taheny, master of ceremonies. Singers from Alma were Messrs. Gallagher, Felt, Kaufer (Ore.), Mueller (Ore.), and Laubacher.

Sodality News. Fr. Richard Rooney, national director of Sodalities, visited Alma with Fr. Howard, the province director, and stayed from October 25 to October 28. He gave the theologians a very informative talk on the Sodality.

Varia. Mr. O'Sullivan returned from a check-up stay at O'Connor's Sanatorium on October 20.

Fr. Schneider returned on Oct. 22 from Los Angeles where his mother is still seriously ill. Mr. E. T. Burke had an eye operation November 4.

The Coadjutor Brothers were feasted at Alma this year on the Feast of St. Alphonsus. Mr. Connors (Ore.) was in charge of the smorgasbord and dinner.

Mr. Conklin's (Ore.) article on the Philosophy of Communism was published in the October JEQ. It was his second article to appear in that magazine during recent months.

BELLARMINE

Very Rev. Fr. Provincial (C. O'Sullivan) began his visitation on Nov. 15. The new domestic chapel accommodated its largest gathering so far, when all the Jesuit pastors and their assistants from San Jose, together with the community, were present for Fr. Provincial's opening exhortation. All fitted in comfortably with a few seats to spare.

Fr. McDermott, Messrs. Buckley and Coney accompanied eight students to the Sodality Convention in Los Angeles.

Over 800 were present at the Mothers' Guild Dessert-Bridge. The building fund increased $2000 as a result.

The Dads' Club held its first Dinner Dance of the year on the campus. About 350 enjoyed the dancing and Otto's ham dinner.

Members of Bellarmine's chapter of the National Forensic League, under the direction of Mr. Carlo Weber, have participated in two invitational speech tournaments. At Stanford, where 40 schools took part, Mr. Weber's boys placed first in discussion and at Modesto they placed first in oratory and extempore speaking, and reached the finals in humorous declamation.

Fr. Stretch's sermon deeply impressed the students and faculty at the Annual Memorial Mass, celebrated by Fr. Rector (T. Cosgrave), for deceased faculty, students, alumni and benefactors.

The domestic chapel is just about complete. A beautiful summit tabernacle with revolving door has replaced the temporary one generously loaned by Alma College. The vigil light mounted on an ornamental bronze wall bracket was put up. Statues of Our Blessed Mother and St. Joseph, tinted and carved out of wood in northern Italy were set on either side of the main altar. Original terra cotta medallions were placed in each of the 4 side altars. Two stained-glass windows were put in by generous benefactors. Six windows still have to be replaced.

Fr. Gruye was called suddenly to the deathbed of his mother in Mandan, North Dakota.

Fr. Pluskell gave the Marian Year Triduum at St. Mary's Church, San Jose.

Fr. Conway and his Alumni have been very active: a "Rush" dessert for the new members, a homecoming football dance, and a Potluck dinner were held on successive week-ends.

"Teen," the book written by Fr. Leahy, is now in its second printing. Just recently in England the Colnmore & Reynolds Publishing Co. bought the exclusive rights to publish it in Ireland and Great Britain under the title "Formative Years."

Fr. Rector addressed the Jesuit Mothers at their regular monthly meeting.

There were 13 vocations to the priesthood from the class of '54. Of these, 10 went to Los Gatos, one to another Religious order, and 2 joined the Seculars.

Messrs. Callanan and McConville coached the JV football team to an undefeated season, the school's first undefeated team in 9 years. The varsity, with only 2 veterans, played nine top teams (4 won their league championships), completed a losing season, the first in 13 years and hopes are high that next year the boys coached by Mr. Callanan and Mr. McConville will put the varsity back up with the winners.

BROPHY

Saturday, November 6, the Nuns moved to their new Convent. Several of the Brophy boys and the faculty members helped them move. They moved their final load on Saturday at 2:00 p.m. and 15 minutes later nine Fathers had a new home.

Monday, Rev. Fr. Provincial (C. O'Sullivan) made the following appointments. Fr. Frank Harrington was appointed Superior; Fr. Dodd the new Minister, and Fr. Wondra, Procurator.

Our first week in the new house, or the old faculty building, was a real experience. Rev. Fr. Superior became the janitor—and was busy trying to find out what valves kept the heat from coming upstairs. He soon found out that the pipes actually did come to the second floor, but the years had changed their original form. In the kitchen Frs. Brannon and Jacobs were seen hovering over the stove with many an assistant at hand to take over for the meals. When all had their chance St. Joseph answered our prayers with a cook. We are just praying that he does show up on the appointed day, Saturday.

During our first week we were kept busy begging from door to door for the necessary equipment for our kitchen, dining room, and our own rooms. The manager of one of the local stores was very good to us and helped us immensely in setting up the necessary tools for the kitchen. The Mothers' Club also worked long and hard in helping us obtain sheets, dishes, pots, and pans. Of course we are still missing many of the essentials for "Good House-keeping," but we all take it in stride, since very little of our time is spent in the house. Since we are in the school from 8:00 till 4:00 we have the same phone number for both residence and school. AMherst 5-8546.

On Sunday, November 14, we had "Open House." A good number of the parents visited us, and were happy to see the inside of a Jesuit House. That night, however, Brophy became cloistered.

Brophy is now open for boarders. At present we have only one boarder, but a couple have applied during this past week. Until we get a cook we will not be able to take any more.

Fr. Superior gave a talk on the Society to the Newman Club of Arizona State College in Tempe.

Fr. Schallert gave the Invocation at a gathering of the Executive' Club in Phoenix.

Fr. Azadian and the group of the Sodalists had an eventful trip last month to Loyola University for the Sodality Meeting.

Last week Frs. Devlin's and Doherty's football team ended their season with a victory over Tempe. This team had previously beaten the Frosh 26-0. This time the Brophy Yearlings won 6-0.

Last Thursday night Frs. Schallert's and Dodd's Varsity team came from behind in the fourth quarter to beat the Indian School 31-19. This week they travel to Tucson to play Sal Pointe High School.

Fr. Devlin has been working hard on the Varsity Basketball team. He is working the team hard in preparation for the South West Catholic Tournament which will be held in early December in Los Angeles.

Fr. Dodd will coach the J.V.'s and Fr. Doherty the Freshmen.

EL RETIRO

On Veterans' Day, Rev. Fr. Superior (O'Mara) offered a Mass of Requiem for our departed retreatants and their deceased relatives. The Alma choir sang the Mass. The entire retreat body is notified of these memorial services and is extremely appreciative of them. Each morning at Holy Mass the Fathers of El Retiro make a memento of the retreatants, living and dead, thus establishing a treasured bond of remembrance where remembrance counts most.

Fr. William Dunne conducted an eight-day retreat for nine laymen, Oct. 8-17, as also a five-day retreat for secular priests, Nov. 7-13.

Fr. Maher gave a retreat at the Cenacle Sisters' Retreat House in Sacramento. On Nov. 1 he conducted a day of recollection for 17 lay professors of USF, who plan to make this an annual event.

Fr. Toner gave the retreat this year to the Poor Clares.

So great is the need for additional Masses in St. Nicholas' Parish, that one of our Fathers now binates there each Sunday.

Two devoted retreatants spent several week-ends repairing and painting the outdoor stations and statues.

Additional parking space is now provided on the far side of Loyola Hall.

A domestic laundry has been installed and is operated by Bro. Joneleit.

The Mission Band has been particularly active these past weeks, being favorably received everywhere.

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY

Highlight of Marian year activities for Loyola was the dedication of the Fatima shrine. His excellency Timothy Manning, assisted by Frs. President (Charles Cassasa) and Karl Von de Ahe, fast they assembled in the chapel auditorium for a general discussion of professional engineering problems.
